

Hockey Club Make Plans For Up-Coming Season

The Didsbury Rambler Hockey Club, a member of the Chinook League, went into action last week-end, when an organizational meeting was held in the arena. It was then decided the same executive as last year would handle the team again this season. It includes: Tom Morris, president; Fred Rowland, sec-treas.; Harold Oke, Wm. McFarquhar, Lawrence Dickan, C. Alden and H. B. Ramm. Wm (Bill) Cowan will be head coach again and this year will be assisted by Lloyd Divine. Walter Irwin will act again as club manager. A group insurance plan for the players was discussed and a committee made up of members of the executive and the players will investigate the issue. It was the feeling of the meeting that Innisfail and Bowden, who were not in the league last year, would be back this year. No definite schedule has as yet been announced by league headquarters.

ZELLA NEWS NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Zella W.I. had an interesting and profitable evening when it sponsored the annual bazaar at the Community Centre Friday evening. A delightful home talent program was made up of a duet by Sharon and Barbara Luft, a duet by Sheila Smith and Judy Johnston, a solo by Helen Wood, a reading by Mrs. W. Herbert, another reading by Mrs. D. Nelson. Bill Towle entertained with several humorous recitations. Sharon Bennett played a piano solo and Margaret and Bobby Peterson and Judy Johnston presented a short skit. Arthur Waldorf, as usual, capably auctioned off the gay assortment of bazaar articles. Mike Knights emceed the evening's entertainment. Net proceeds amounted to approximately $100. The newly completed kitchen received its initiation Friday evening when the ladies were able to serve the pie and ice cream through the serving counter. The kitchen is also being used for Sunday school classes.

Mr. A. Patterson is seriously ill and a patient in the General hospital in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Braun returned Wednesday last after spending a few days at Evansburg with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Braun.

Mrs. A. Oppen is a patient in the Olds hospital.

A Community Club meeting is planned for Thursday evening, December 4th, at the Centre.

Several hunters have been out the past week but no luck to date. Harman Home and School are planning a social evening for Saturday, Dec. 13th, to take the place of its regular monthly meeting.

BEWARE OF THE 'FLU'

Asian 'flu will strike again this winter, predicts The Pioneer Post. But it says it won't be as severe as last year's epidemic. Most of those who went down with it last year will have immunity against another attack. For the remainder, vaccine shots are recommended.

SUKEROFF - CARLSON

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Missionary Church parsonage on Nov. 26th, when Miss Marie Carlson of Camrose, and Fred Sukeroff of Didsbury, exchanged marriage vows. Rev. W. D. Annett performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride and groom's only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stauffer.

The bride looked lovely in a lace-over-satin powder blue dress, with white accessories. She carried a white Bible, accented with pink rosebuds and lily of the valley.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stauffer. Following a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Sukeroff will make their home in the Didsbury district.

MELVIN NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Krebs left Friday morning for a visit with their daughter and family at Fort St. John.

Miss Viola McNaughton of Westaskin was home for the weekend.

A military whist drive was held at Westcott school on Monday evening in aid of the Westcott Boy Scouts. Ten tables were in play. Winners were Mrs. B. Rinehart, Mrs. A. Kouschuh, B. Brinson and J. Johnston; losers were Mrs. B. Brinson, Mrs. D. Sawyer, C. Murphy and W. Shields.

The Westcott church was well filled on Sunday. Seventeen new members were welcomed to the congregation.

Flag Dedication Ceremonies Held

(From Our Own Correspondent)

An impressive flag dedication ceremony of the 1st Didsbury Girl Guide Co. and the 1st Didsbury Cub Pack was held in the school auditorium on Friday, November 14th. Rev. G. Giffin officiated, assisted by Mrs. C. Leeson.

Following the advance of the color parties the flags to be dedicated were placed on the altar. Mr. N. Yates, of Olds (Assistant Provincial Commissioner) in his short address, remarked that it was a pleasure to speak to these groups for "I believe".

Mrs. B. A. Olds, Girl Guide Commissioner, presented the flags.

Letter To The Editor

Didsbury Pioneer.

Dear Sir: Editor: Among the objects of Home and School Association we read: "To obtain the best for each child according to his physical, mental, social and spiritual needs."

We, as an association, are intensely interested in the proposed buildings program for the Olds School Division, as outlined by Mr. Tom Morris in the November 20th issue of your paper. At our last executive meeting, we wholeheartedly endorsed the decision of our board to make these additions to the present facilities.

We would urge every parent, who is eligible to vote on December 8th, let us demonstrate to our board that we have confidence in its administration.

(Signed) MRS. H. A. TRAUB, President of Didsbury Home and School Association

Can You Beat This Record...

We, in Didsbury and district, are very proud of the lady in our midst who we believe to be the oldest active female curler in Canada, or anywhere else for that matter. The girl we refer to is "Daisy Mae" McCoy, shown in the above photo with her curling toes on (and a broom of course). She's standing beside a cake she made to raffie off, net proceeds of which went to the curling club, who have plans well underway for a new rink and artificial ice here next year. We guarantee you that our favorite curler, "Daisy Mae" will be one of the first ones to play on the new surface, in the new building. According to available statistics, Mrs. McCoy has been playing the curling game for high on 40 years and during this time has won more

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. W. Pyten and family and Mr. P. Fair were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Graham Sr. on Sunday.

Carol Teynor spent the weekend at the home of Roelle and Cella Vanholland.

Peter Vanholland spent the weekend with Bobbie and Herald Teynor.

A Social Credit political rally is scheduled for Fallen Timber school Wednesday evening.

We are sorry to hear that young Eddie Korster is in Didsbury hospital suffering with pneumonia. A speedy recovery Eddie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Teynor and family were visitors at the home of Mr. K. Teynor and Mr. George Teynor.

The young people of the Fallen Timber church have formed a Crusader group under the name of the Fallen Timber Pathfinders. Gary Moore is president, Lynn Eymen, vice-president; Gordon McGiffin, secretary; Danny Howton, treasurer. Program committee: Anne-Marie McGiffin, Carol Teynor and Allan Adams, with Monty Moore as chaplain.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Lehn and Wendy and Mr. and Mrs. J. Howton, Danny and Jeannie were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moore and family.

BERGEN NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Harold Bjorngren returned to her home at Prince Albert after visiting here for a few days following the funeral of her father, Mr. John Haug.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ellis are here from the States and will visit friends and relatives until Christmas. Mrs. Ellis is a sister of Erling and Fritz Erickson and Mr. Ellis is a brother of Ross Ellis.

Four-year-old Gordie Munzer had a rather chilling experience when he fell into the spring beside his home here. He was rescued by his mother. He had slipped on the ice at the edge of the water, which is quite deep in places, since the leaves have drained the pond.

The bush country west of here was alive with hunters on Saturday. The Sundre paper says even some birds were wearing red cap woodpeckers, no doubt.

Mike McDermott was a new pupil in Grade 1 this week at Bergen school.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Culver of Ft. MeLeod were weekend guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ness.

Rites Held For Accident Victim

Funeral services for Alan Verdere (Shorey) Chaffin, aged 21, a member of the P.C.C.I. Griesbach Barracks, Edmonton, were held on Tuesday, December 2nd from Knox United church, Didsbury, with full military honors. The deceased was killed in a highway accident east of Didsbury on Saturday, Nov. 29th, in which one other soldier was seriously injured. He leaves to mourn his passing, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Chaffin and two brothers, Frank of Didsbury and George (Bud), of Calgary. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gladys Giffin and interment took place in the Didsbury cemetery.

COULDN'T BREAK IN...

The talkative woman was telling her husband about the bad manners of an acquaintance who had recently paid her a visit. "If that woman yawned once when I was talking to her," she said, "she yawned a dozen times." "Perhaps she wasn't yawning," her husband said, "maybe she wanted to say something."

Westcott News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Over the weekend an oil derrick was erected on the Allan Vipond farm and reports have it that drilling has started.

We are pleased to report that Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robertson are well on the road to recovery. Their illness was not as serious as first thought.

A speedy recovery is wished to Mrs. Willie Bogner, who is still hospitalized in Didsbury.

Most of the big game hunters are returning with their full quota, or to it seem.

The Community Club will sponsor a dance in aid of the kiddies' Christmas treats at Westcott school on Saturday night, Dec. 6th at 8:30. Music will be supplied by a group from Calgary.

Westcott Jr. W.I. "family night" was held at the school on Friday evening. A delicious ham supper was enjoyed by all present.

The Westcott Jr. Institute bazaar held recently at the school was very successful. The "bunny" which was donated by Syd's Store, was raffled and won by Mrs. E. A. Hayball of Didsbury.

POSTMISTRESS RECEIVES LONG-SERVICE BADGE

Mrs. A. Pawson, postmistress at Big Prairie (10 miles west of Okanogan), was presented with a long-service 25-year badge by F. Star-chuk, area superintendent of postal services, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Pawson commenced service at Big Prairie as the first assistant to Mr. A. R. Binney, previous to 1933. In that year she was appointed postmistress and has held the post since that time. While not working in the post office she shares chores on her husband's farm.

Farmers' Bonspiel Set For Next Week

(From Our Own Correspondent)

At a special meeting of the Didsbury and District Board of Trade held Monday morning in the Lions hall, it was decided to hold the annual farmers' bonspiel in the local curling rink on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Mr. Avo Elder was appointed drawmaster and entries are to be made to either Lorne Clayton, Ed Ford or Alf Allen by, or before 6 p.m. on December 9th.

The usual banquet will be held in the school auditorium on December 11th at 6:30 p.m. and there will be some fine entertainment on hand at this time.

NEW LICENCE COLORS PICKED

Alberta's motor car licence plates in 1959 will have green letters and numerals on a white background, according to a recent announcement by officials of the provincial highways department.

As in recent years, the plates are being made by printers of the Post, Saskatchewan provincial jail, some 15 miles east of Edmonton.

Provincial officials said the new plates for next year will go on sale March 1.

Kin Korner

At the last meeting of the club, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Calgary visited with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Atkinson and family over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Gobers, Mrs. Oville McMann and Lorna, and Mrs. Reid visited in Calgary on Friday.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Don Devolin (Lillian Miller) on the birth of a daughter on Friday, November 28. Mrs. E. T. Miller is spending this week in Calgary.

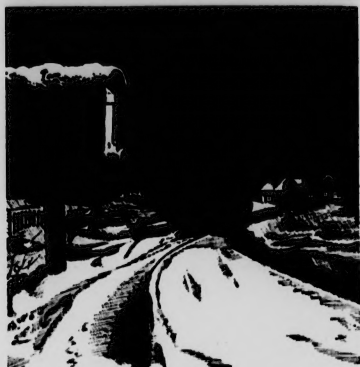

Doug Evans of Forestburg, Lawrenco Kalliel of Tofoed and Owen Francis of Carstairs, are seen with the first prize winners in the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto.

AND ON EVEN THE COLDEST NIGHT...

Thousands of Imperial people work night and day to bring you the low-priced oil products you have come to depend on

Across this country, nearly 14,000 Imperial people are at work to supply your needs... in exploration parties, at research laboratories, in refineries, on the road.

In the oil fields, and in areas which might produce oil, they are seeking to enlarge Canada's oil reserves... so that this country will not go without oil, now or in the future.

In research... (Imperial has more extensive facilities than the rest of the industry put together)... and at nine refineries, working round the clock... they seek to develop the products which will keep you warmer, move you more conveniently... and more cheaply.

For in all their activities, Imperial people are constantly aware of the necessity of bringing you the products you need... at the low prices you have come to expect.

Carnival Days Are Happy Days . . .

The majority of business firms are taking part in the annual shopping carnival, sponsored by the local Board of Trade, which is scheduled to end on Dec. 13. Many fine bargains and several fine prizes are up for grabs during carnival days — now's your chance to visit "our town" and catch up the bargains and, if you're lucky, a prize.

Unpopular Mechanics . . .

Mr. Peter Currie, a Scotsman by birth, who lives in England now, recently won a dispute with the electric company and thereby asserted the dignity of man over machine. The battle began when Mr. Currie received an electric bill for $2, 12 shillings and sixpence. A true Scot, he examined the charge closely and figured it at $2, 12 shillings and five pence halfpenny — and accused the company of overcharging him half a penny. The company explained that it's electronic calculator always worked to the nearest penny. "Robbery is robbery whether committed by a machine or not," Mr. Currie retorted, so the company returned the halfpenny, as well as another one owed him on a previous bill. (As far as can be ascertained the Didsbury clan of Curries do not have the same blood count or blood line as the Currie mentioned above. Maybe, at times, we wish we had!)

Light Up For Christmas . . .

Seems like it's time again to start lighting up for the on-coming festive season. This time around we make that age-old suggestion that a candle be lit in every home. As far as the business section of the town is concerned we imagine that they will have a show of colored lights gracing their premises; as to the town, we trust they will have the colored light streamers working between the lamp posts to let people know that we're alive, that there is a town between Carstairs and Olds, and that we also would enjoy being a part of the Christmas scene. Let's start from here and see just how well we can approach the "Holy Night" with gaiety and respect.

TOO MANY FREE RIDES

We are all for unemployment insurance and fully realize that our economy would often be near a collapse without it. At the same time, it has been continually brought to our attention that there are far too many "free riders" being taken on the unemployment insurance band wagon. Observers have told us that the number of deliberately planned free riders year after year in Canada climb into brackets, away above the hundred thousand mark.

This makes Canada's unemployment situation look worse than it really is. These men go out in the summer and work for six to seven months, then return to the population centres and immediately apply for unemployment insurance benefits. They withdraw to a placement, comfortable lackadaisical existence till the spring thaw. It would be interesting to see the result of a survey on this situation.

All this puts an unhappy burden on workers and business who operate without the need for unemployment insurance. Take The Camrose Canadian for instance. For the period of nearly twelve years of operations by the present proprietors have never been one instance where an employee has left with a justifiable claim for unemployment insurance benefits. Ours is only a single business under similar circumstances. These workers, too, might take a couple of months off some winter, with reduced pay, just to get the luxurious feeling that they did not have to report to duty each and every morning.

NEEDED BACKING . . .

A minister, returning home late one night from a sick call, noticed one of his parishioners staggering down the street.

"Let me help you to the door," said the minister, guiding the inebriated member of his flock gently home.

At the door the besotted man pleaded with the minister to come into the house with him. But the minister demurred on the grounds that it was too late.

"Please, Rev'ren," the man beseeched him. "Just for a minute, I want the wife to see who I been out with tonight."

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

(Intended For Last Week)
Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGaffin and family, Miss E. Bruns and Mr. M. Street, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Bruns of Carstairs at Cremona on Sunday. They also spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Monney.

A number of young people gathered at the home of Lynn Pyten on Nov. 22nd, to honor her on her 13th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Howton and family were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Morrison recently, the occasion being Patsy's 16th birthday.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Anne-Marie McGaffin had the misfortune to hurt a little finger, necessitating X-rays.

The sympathy of the district is extended to the family of Mr. J. Haug, who passed away last week. The school children are busily preparing their parts for the school Christmas concert. This is an excellent project for enterprise and to help them cultivate their memories.

Mrs. Rose Howton was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Olive Admussen.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Bob Moore is out of the University hospital and home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Monney, Mr. Robert Moore and Rev. Ruby Moore visited Mr. H. Monney in the Didsbury hospital Sunday.

Miss Patsy Morrison spent the weekend at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Teynor, Mrs. Emma Wright and Leonard, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Romyn of Sundre on Sunday.

NEW DRUGS FOR TB

In the last ten years several drugs have been discovered which help in the treatment of tuberculosis. Generally they are used in combination because it has been found that the development of some resistant to the drugs is delayed longer by a combination than by the use of one only.

THE Homemakers

By HELEN HOWARD
District Home Economist

DEAR HOMEMAKERS,
It's later than you think! Plan ahead so that there is not a whiff of weariness and rush to spoil the special Christmas Season. Dashing about all through the holidays and even before, shopping, clearing cooking, busting and aching will in no way reflect the true spirit of Christmas.

Here's how -
1. Put down on paper all the little jobs to be done. Set a deadline for all special jobs.
2. Things you can do well ahead of time are:

(a) Address and mark Christmas cards.
(b) Clean silver.
(c) Check last year's decorations and make replacements.
(d) Get as much baking done
ahead as possible - Christmas cake, plum pudding, cookies you can freeze.

(e) Wrap gifts as they are purchased. It saves a lot of time later on.

Christmas Shopping Hints
All agree it's easier if done early.
Go by yourself to save time and steps.

Leave the children at home or trade a day of baby-sitting with a neighbor so you can each have one free day of shopping. When you take your youngsters to see Santa Claus and to do their shopping - don't try to combine with your own errands.

Dress in light-weight clothes and wear sensible shoes. Take time to put pretty make-up on. You'll look and feel better.

Time out for a nourishing lunch
and a rest will actually save time in the long run.

Make a shopping list and organize your shopping.

Decide the most you can spend
for each item.

You'll save yourself a lot of tension if you don't try to find the perfect gift in every case, but compromise.

How Much Is A Pound?

For your Christmas Baking, this information may be helpful:

Glaze cherries, 1 lb., 2 cups.

Almonds, shelled 1 lb., 2 1/2 cups.

Brazils, shelled, 1 lb., 2 cups.

Raisins (seeded) 1 lb., 2 cups.

Raisins (seedless) 1 lb., 2 1/2

cups.

Raisins (Sultana) 1 lb., 2 3/4 cups.

Currants, 1 lb., 2 3/8 cups.

Candied pineapple, chopped, 1 lb.,

2 cups.

Chopped peel, 1 lb., 2 cups.

Citron, chopped, 1 lb., 2 cups.

Butter or shortening, 1 lb., 2 cups.

Suet, 1 lb., 4 cups, packed.

All-purpose flour, 1 lb., 4 cups, packed.

Granulated sugar, 1 lb., 2 cups.

Bread crumbs (stale) 1 lb., 5 1/3

cups.

Bread crumbs (stale) 1 lb., (20-

oz. loaf) 6 2/3 cups.

Bread crumbs (fresh) 1 lb., 6

cups.

Bread crumbs (fresh) 1 lb., (20-

oz. loaf) 10 cups.

Brown sugar, 1 lb., 2 3/4 cups.

Notes From D.A.

District Agriculturist
By HOWARD FULCHER

A business agreement between a father and son operating a farm together is important. There are various types of agreements which may be used, in all cases they should be well known and understood by both the father and the son.

Lack of any agreement may lead to misunderstanding and poor father and son relationship. The son may feel insecure and look for other livelihood, leaving the farm.
The father may ponder as to retirement plans and his son's future and finally quit. When any of these happen, the son leaves or the father quits, resulting in the farm being sold outside the family; it is detrimental to the family, the farm and the agriculture industry. Good father-son relationship will develop with a feeling of security when there are sound written agreements with both parties having wills.

There are two main concerns in the agreement, firstly the operation of the farm and division of income.
In this area there are numerous ways of doing it, wages, wages plus bonus, income from specific enterprises, share of farm receipts or cash and share rental agreements.

The second and often more difficult part is the transfer of ownership. This may take place over the lifetime of the father or after his death, it may be a gift or sale or a combination of both.

To insure a satisfactory agreement the basic condition would be frstly a large enough income from the farm to support both father and son's needs. The agreement should be written and clearly define responsibilities and contributions of each party. It should provide for separate housing for father and son's families. The income should be divided fairly on the basis of contributions to the farming enterprise. In addition agreement and farming operation must be accompanied with adequate farm records so all concerned know the finances of the whole business.

President Taylor and the deputation group of the summer held a weekend Bible conference in the United Missionary Church at Edmonton. Miss Iris Schlitt took a group of students with her to Red-water for the Sunday service. The Gospel Service League sent groups to Hordley, Galahad and James River on Sunday.

Mrs. Lydia Suder and Mrs. Florence Finlay held missionary meetings in the Parkdale and Montgomery United Missionary churches
 on Sunday.

Miss Gladys Eby entertained the girls left in the dormitory over the weekend on Saturday evening. They enjoyed a cup of coffee and a piece of cake before retiring for the night. Mrs. Taylor and Miss Elaine Wolfe, assistant dean of women,
 helped serve these refreshments.

Mrs. Peter Waldin was on campus
 Thursday evening and Friday.
 With her eldest daughter in college,
 Mrs. Waldin visits here frequently.

On Thursday evening the American students again decorated the dining hall, set the tables in banquet style, and prepared a program for the annual Thanksgiving occasion. A friend of the college donated several turkeys for the occasion and Mrs. Arthur Eby, our excellent cook, prepared a meal
 worthy of the attention of anyone.

During the course of the meal several numbers were presented by the Americans. Rev. Auburn With-himself from Washington state,
 was chairman of the occasion. Mr.
 Fred Martin, president of the World Wide Gospel Messengers, the missionary society of the college,
 took an offering for their project and realized a good sum. Mr. La-Verne Neufeld expressed words of appreciation from the Associated Student Council and President Taylor spoke a few words of thanks on behalf of the faculty from the Canadian side.

Arthur Eby has had some help
 in putting on egg rock on the celling of the student centre this week.
 Mr. Sam Eby and Mr. Verdo Sherrock have been assisting, but more help can be used.

Miss Margie Steeves is doing a good job as assistant cook at the college. She is also taking a full second year course.

On the basis of past experience
 at least three Albertans will likely be killed in traffic next week. According to the toll will probably total 42 dead. Ordinarily the figures would be six for Alberta and 56 for Canada.

It's impossible now to predict who the victims will be, but the odds are that most will be persons who completely ignored the reams
 of good advice being publicized
 now by the Canadian Highway Safety Council in preparation for Safe-Driving Week, Dec. 1 to 7.

Some of the dead will be innocent victims of other drivers who ignored the advice but who will not pay with their own lives. The most they will contend with will be possible police action, suits for damages and tortured consciences.

Safe-Driving Week is held during the first week of December to try to emphasize as forcefully as possible the fact that responsibility for preventing traffic deaths, injuries and property damage falls directly on the individual. More than 95 per cent of all accidents need not happen. There are traffic laws to be obeyed, signs to indicate danger and — common sense which tells any motorist and pedestrian when he is doing something dangerous.

This safety drive is only a week-long effort. But if more people would observe Safety-Week it would help to demonstrate that traffic accidents can be cut down. The next, and obvious, step is to continue safe driving practices every week in the year.

As a matter of interest and guidance for motorists, the Safety Conference has listed the 11 chief causes of traffic accidents in order of importance. Avoiding any and all of these causes will be the best way of assuring that you stay alive
 to enjoy Christmas.

1. Speed too fast for conditions.
2. Unsafe backing.
3. Cutting in.
4. Assuming right-of-way.
5. Failure to signal.
6. Unsafe passing.
7. Inattention.
8. Intoxication.
9. Following too close.
10. Driving on wrong side of road.
11. Improper parking.

One thing needs to be pointed out in regard to intoxication. While it is only number eight on the list of prime causes of accidents, safety experts concede it a much higher place as a contributing factor. This is an especially important point to remember as the Christmas and New Year season approaches.

LIGHT YOUR WAY ...... WITH BIBLE STUDY

By REV. E. B. FOX

"When you pray the creed, why do you say: 'I believe in the holy Christian Church,' why don't you say 'I believe in the holy Catholic Church?'" This is a question often asked.

The word "Catholic" means "universal." So it is used in the Creed.
 However, the Roman Catholic and the Greek Catholic Church have used the word "Catholic" so extensively, that people today associate the Roman and Greek Catholic Church with the term "Catholic." In order that we Lutherans do not give anyone the impression that we are in any way associated with either
 the Roman Catholic or Greek Catholic Church, we use the term: "I believe in the Holy Christian Church."

The church rests upon Christ, not Rome as the Head and Cornerstone of the Church. It is the Bride of Christ. This is the Church Universal, to which all true believers in Lord Jesus Christ belong.

It is also called "holy." Why? The members who believe in Jesus Christ have the full and free forgiveness of all their sins: "Ye also,
 as lively stones, are built up, also a spiritual house, an holy priesthood,
 to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ."

On the other hand, we must not construe this to mean that the member of "The Holy Christian Church" no longer sin. They still sin in thought, word, and deed, and will continue to do so as long as they are clothed about with flesh.
 Even a Paul confessed his sinfulness.
 But, through faith in Jesus,
 the Son of God and Savior of the world, they have the promised forgiveness. The members are holy in the sight of God by reason of their faith in Christ.

You may say: "This is a battle of terminology." Be it as it may, but the important thing we want to remember is that we are and remain
 members of the Body of Christ.
 "Other foundation can no man lay
 than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."
